Work Experience

January 2023 - August 2023

Lahmon Architects, Culver City - Intern <https://lahmonarch.com/>

Guided by experienced architects, I gained hands-on insight into the construction documents and permits needed to prepare for and observe the construction of affordable mixed-use housing. In a small hard-working firm, we navigated through the later phases of a few Low-income Multi-Use Apartment in Los Angeles.

November 2020 - PRESENT

IEJGA, Inland Empire - Lead Assistant Pro <https://www.iejga.com/>

At an organization dedicated to imparting golf skills and valuable life lessons, with guidance from Head Pro Eric Yoo, we strive to provide exceptional instruction and mentorship to our students. As a Lead Assistant Pro, I am entrusted with the comprehensive education of juniors and adults, ranging from beginner to intermediate players, with a curriculum including full swing, short game, putting, mental game, course etiquette, and course management.

I have had the privilege of working closely with Head Pro Eric Yoo, and an esteemed authority within the industry, who can provide further insight into my demonstrated work ethic and rapid achievements as a Golf instructor. For a better understanding of my professional capabilities, Eric Yoo can be contacted at growthegame@iejga.com or by phone at (909) 855-9767
